Grand Jury indicts alleged assailant in Port Jeff Station shooting

A suspect arrested earlier this month for a Port Jefferson Station shooting is scheduled for arraignment in Riverhead tomorrow (Tuesday June 28), Suffolk County District Attorney Thomas Spota said.

Alain Jean, 22, also known as "Bullet", will appear before Judge Timothy Mazzei in Riverhead.

The defendant, who is homeless, allegedly shot another 22 year old homeless man with a .22 caliber revolver on Union Avenue in an abandoned house on June 11. The victim is recovering from multiple gunshot wounds at Stony Brook University Hospital.

Judge Mazzei will call the court calendar at 9:30 am.
